TULIPS

This brilliant piece is the sculptural culmination of artist Jeff Koons' Celebration series, which Koons has been working on for more than 20 years. Celebration explores the concept of child-like innocence captured in incredibly modern and forward art. Tulips, created from 1995–2004, is one of the largest and most complex examples in the series. Created in five unique variations, all were produced in high-chromium stainless steel and brought to a high mirror polish in a variety of bold colors that reflect the viewer and the art itself. Weighing in at an astounding 2.7 metric tons, this piece nonetheless exudes a weightless feel, harkening back to the inspiration of balloon animals.

DIMENSIONS      Tulips is 2.1 meters (6.9 feet) high, 4.5 meters (14.8 feet) wide and 5.2 meters (17.25 feet) long.

CREATED BY      Jeff Koons was born in York, Pennsylvania, USA. He gained acclaim for his public sculptures, such as the monumental floral sculpture Puppy (1992) shown at Rockefeller Center and permanently installed at the Guggenheim Bilbao. Another floral sculpture, Split-Rocker (2000), was installed at the Papal Palace in Avignon, the Palace of Versailles and Fondation Beyeler.

Koons also has received numerous awards and honors in recognition of his cultural achievements. Most recently, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton recognized Koons for his outstanding commitment to international cultural exchange and the U.S. State Department's Art in Embassies program.
